

Content

Foreword .....2

B. SAUERWEIN
Saum Vegetation in the Change of Land use.
The Change of Saum Vegetation in its Impact for the Honey Flow .....5

M. LINK
The plant diversity of herbal ridges in relation to the adjacent land use, the management level and the width as well as recommendations for maintaining grass and herbal dominated small line structures .....21

T. HÖVELMANN
The floristic value and ecological management of road side-stripes.....31

R. & U. Ozols
History and significance from fences and accompanying fringes as cultural and aesthetic elements in the agricultural landscape.....41

M. & A. BURGHARDT
Fringe habitats of the historical vineyard landscape in Franconia .....48

K. FÜLDNER
Lepidoptera at forest edges – supported or endangered by forest management?.....54

H.-J. FLÜGEL & R. ANGERSBACH
Floristic and faunistic studies on side-stripes of the German motorway A7 next to Hasselberg (Northern Hesse) with a main focus on locusts (Saltatoria).....60

M. SOMMER & H.-J. FLÜGEL Carabidae (Coleoptera) from Barber traps at the road sides of the motorway A7 at the service point Hasselberg (Northern Hesse) .....71

H.-J. FLÜGEL & W. HÖHNER Coleoptera (without Carabidae) from Barber traps at the road sides of of the motorway A7 at the service point Hasselberg (Northern Hesse) .....77

All articles are in German with english summary. The following news from the Living Bee Museum Knüllwald are only written in German without english summary:

Nachrichten aus dem Lebendigen Bienenmuseum Knüllwald (LBMK)

E. GEISELER
Berichte über Zugänge im Museum, aus dem Bienenjahr sowie zum Hymenopterendienst im Schwalm-Eder-Kreis 2006 .....88

H.-J. Flügel
Beobachtungen an Blüten und Blütenbesuchern im Frühjahr 2006 .....90

H.-J. Flügel
Erfassung des Artenspektrums auf dem Gelände des LBMK .....92